

THE SESSIONS TAKE PLACE IN THE FOLLOWING ROOMS:

- MANS = Sicco Mansholt (ground floor)
- JENK = Lord Jenkins (ground floor)
- DURI = Jean Durieux (first floor)
- GASP = Alcide de Gasperi (second floor)

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Tuesday 23/6/2009

14:30 - 16:00	Opening session: Climate change: act and adapt GASP
16:30 - 18:00	Can the media and society change climate attitudes? GASP	Mobilising local authorities DURI
18:00 - 20:00	Networking cocktail: Cities against climate change In the Piazza of the Berlaymont building NB: Green Week badge is needed to attend

Wednesday 24/6/2009

	1. EU climate policies	2. The international dimension	3. Living with climate change	4. 2050 Vision: A carbon-free society
09:30 - 11:00	1.1. The EU's "climate and energy package" DURI	2.1. Can a green business revolution bring us out of recession? GASP	3.1. The science of climate change JENK	4.1. Energy MANS
11:30 - 13:00	1.2. Preparing for the world's largest carbon allowance auctions JENK Stakeholders*	2.2. What can be asked of emerging economies? GASP	3.2. Biodiversity aspects of adaptation to climate change DURI	4.2. Energy Continuation 4.1. MANS
14:30 - 16:00	1.3. Sharing the effort of cutting emissions in sectors outside the EU ETS JENK	2.3. The EU, U.S. and China: Shared or competing interests? GASP	3.3. The impact of climate change on employment and social cohesion MANS	4.3. Greening our economy DURI
16:30 - 18:00	1.4. Sharing the effort of cutting emissions in sectors outside the EU ETS Continuation 1.3. JENK Stakeholders*	2.4. The international security dimension DURI	3.4. Disaster management in the face of climate change MANS	4.4. Greening our economy Continuation 4.3. GASP
14:30 - 16:00	Side event: LIFE Environment and LIFE Nature Awards 2008-2009 Salon rouge
14:00 - 16:00	Side activity: Vegetal City : An exhibition of architect Luc Schuiten's urban visions of a future based on a new relationship between man and the natural environment. Guided visit in English Departure from the Charlemagne building, Information Desk
18:00 - 20:30	Side event 2050 Vision: Cocktail followed by the film ' The Age of Stupid ' – by Franny Armstrong (90 mins) Followed by a Q & A session with Lizzie Gillett, producer of the film, by videolink from London GASP room

* Session for which some prior knowledge of the topic would be useful

Thursday 25/6/2009

	1. EU climate policies	2. The international dimension	3. Living with climate change	4. 2050 Vision: A carbon-free society
09:30 - 11:00	1.5. Fighting climate change through better use of our resources (1): Today JENK	2.5. Cooperation with developing countries to tackle climate change GASP	3.5. Building adaptation strategies across Europe DURI	4.5. Transport and spatial planning in a decarbonised world MANS
11:30 - 13:00	1.6. Fighting climate change through better use of our resources (2): Tomorrow Continuation 1.5. JENK	2.6. Sectoral approaches: What can they contribute to a global climate framework? DURI	3.6. The water challenge GASP	4.6. Transport and spatial planning in a decarbonised world Continuation 4.5. MANS
14:30 - 16:00	1.7. Transport initiatives and their GHG savings DURI	2.7. The Mediterranean region: A climate change hotspot JENK	3.7. Mainstreaming adaptation: The challenge for Europe's agriculture MANS	4.7. Working with nature GASP
16:30 - 18:00	1.8. Carbon Capture and Storage: EU and international developments JENK Stakeholders*	2.8. International efforts to adapt to climate change in the Arctic region DURI	3.8. Technologies for adaptation: Water, construction, resource-intensive industries MANS	4.8. Working with nature Continuation 4.7. GASP
11:30 - 13:00	Side session: Sustainable banks - climate change and the energy revolution Salon rouge
14:00 - 16:00	Side activity: Vegetal City : An exhibition of architect Luc Schuiten's urban visions of a future based on a new relationship between man and the natural environment. Guided visit in French Departure from the Charlemagne building, Information Desk
14:30 - 16:00	Side session: Funding for Eco-innovation - the why, what and how of the Call 2009 Salon rouge
18:00 - 19:30	Side event: ARCHIBIOTICS Presentation by environmental architect, and prize winner, Vincent Callebaut of his visionary architectural works Cocktail GASP

Friday 26/6/2009

10:00 - 12:00	Closing session: The road to Copenhagen GASP
12:00 - 13:00	Cocktail
From 22/06 to 26/06	Climate Migrants Photo Exhibition People and places under threat from global warming – from Germany's lowlands to the tiny island nation of Tuvalu Esplanade of the Berlaymont building

* Session for which some prior knowledge of the topic would be useful

GREEN WEEK
changing our behaviour

env-gw2009@ec.europa.eu
www.ec.europa.eu/environment/greenweek